

Self Help Documentation

The self help documentation is where you will find article which help you to get started with the Mithi products and also explain the interface and uses of each of the product platforms.

To access the documentation,

1. Login to the Mithi Customer Account
 2. On the Home page, click on the tile for the documentation
 3. The documentation application will open in a new tab.
-